

- Were you denied housing because you come from another country, or because you do not speak English?
- Has your landlord made repairs for some tenants but not others, based on their race, color or national origin?
- Did your landlord make you pay more money or refuse to rent to you because you have a large family?
- Have you ever been told, “We don’t allow children in this building?”
- Did a property manager refuse to rent to you because you use a wheelchair?

Stop discrimination in housing!

To report housing discrimination call:

King County Office of Civil Rights

(206) 296-7592

TTY (206) 296-7596

400 Yesler Way, Room 260
Seattle WA 98104

www.metrokc.gov/dias/ocre

Stop Discrimination in Housing!

The law protects you from discrimination based on your:

- Race
- Color
- Sex or gender
- Ancestry
- Religion
- Age
- National origin
- Marital status
- Parental /familial status
- Disability
- Sexual Orientation
- Section 8
- Retaliation
- Use of a trained service animal

Have you been discriminated against in housing?

Call us! We can help you understand your choices under the law. Our services are free, fair and impartial. If you do not speak English we will provide an interpreter at no cost to help you.

The work that provided the basis for this publication was supported by funding under a grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The author and publisher are solely responsible for the content, which does not necessarily reflect the views of the government.

Our offices are accessible to people with disabilities.

King County Office of Civil Rights

(206) 296-7592 TTY (206) 296-7596

400 Yesler Way, Room 260
Seattle WA 98104

www.metrokc.gov/dias/ocre